Commonw. vs. Intoxicating Liquor Complainant to Seize

By due return upon the warrant issued upon said Complainant, as more fully appears by Officer return on said warrant it appears that certain intoxicating liquors with the vessels containing them were duly seized by virtue of said warrant, after a full examination and hearing, of the whole matter, in the opinion of said Court the value of said liquors with the vessels containing the same does exceed the value of twenty dollars. It is therefore ordered by said Court that be given according to law to Michael Hogan, and all other persons claiming any interest in said liquors or vessels to appear before the Criminal term of the Superior Court next to be holden at Seacoast in and County of Berkshire on the first Monday of January next to answer to said Complainant, and show cause if any they have why said liquors and vessels should not be forfeited. And said notice was duly issued by said Police Court within twenty days after the seizure of said liquors.

9 Com. vs. Intoxicating liquor Complainant to Search

On return of the warrant issued upon said Complainant was made, as more fully appears by the Officer's return on said Warrant. By said return it appears that certain intoxicating liquors, with the vessels containing them, were duly seized by virtue of said Warrant. After a full examination and hearing of the whole matter, in the opinion of said Court, the value of said liquors with the vessels containing them does not exceed twenty dollars. It is therefore ordered by said Court that notice be given to Hector Minchell, in accordance with the General Statutes, and all other persons claiming any interest in said liquors or vessels to appear before said Police Court at a Court to be held at the Police Court room in Adams in said County on the sixteenth day of November next at ten o'clock A.M. to answer to said Complainant, and show cause, if any thing have, why such liquors, with the vessels containing them shall not be forfeited. Comyth v. Intoxicating Liquors Complaint to Search & Seize Intox. Liquors On said 8th Day of November ^{3. o'clock PM} due return of the Warrant issued upon said Complaint was made, as appears by the Officers return on said Warrant. By said return it appears that certain intoxicating liquors, with the vessels containing them, were seized by virtue of said Warrant. After a full examination and hearing of the whole matter, in the opinion of said Court, the value of said liquors with the vessels containing the same does exceed twenty dollars. It is therefore considered and ordered by said Court that notice be given in accordance of laws of this County, to Timothy Collins, and all others claiming any interest in said Liquors or vessels to appear before the Superior Court next to be holden at Pittsfield, within and for said County, on the first Monday of January next to answer to said Complaint, and show cause, if any they have, why such liquors, with the vessels containing them should not be forfeited.
 And said Notice was duly issued by said Police Court within twenty four hours after the seizure of the said liquors.

Canah v. Intoxicating liquors Complaint to Search & Seize Intx. liquors

On the said 9th day of Nov. at four o'clock P.m. due return of the warrant issued upon said Complaint was made, as appears by the return of the Officer upon the warrant. By said return appears that certain intoxicating liquors, with the vessels containing them were seized by virtue of said warrant. After a full examination and hearing of the whole matter, in the opinion of said Court, the value of said liquors with the vessels containing the same does not exceed twenty dollars. It is ordered by said Court that notice be given Peter Galligan and all others claiming any interest in said liquors or vessels containing the same to appear before the Police Court of Adams, at the Police Court room in the North village of said Adams, at 10 o'clock A.M. on the twenty fourth day of November current to answer to said Complaint and for trial, and to show cause, if any you have, why said liquors & vessels should not be forfeited. And D. notice was duly issued by said Court, within 24 hours after the seizure of said Intoxicating liquors.

On the said 24th day of Nov. the said Peter Galligan appeared, and claims said liquors and vessels, and of this puts them trial before said Court, and said cause is continued to the 8th day of Dec. next, at two o'clock P.M. On said 8th day of December, the said Galligan again appears, after hearing claims credible witness duly sworn, to tell the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth and fully hearing and understanding the Deft. the Claimant, it appears to said Court that said liquors and vessels should be declared forfeited. It is therefore considered and ordered by said Court that said liquors be forfeited for being kept for sale in this Court's Contrary ^{and stop off. party court.} to Law. From which judgment appeals to the Superior Court, and it is ordered by said Police Court Justices that said Deft. recognize with sufficient surety in ^{Officer 230} the sum of two hundred dollars for his personal appearance before said Superior next to be holden at Pittsfield on the first Monday of January next to answer to said appeal and the lawd's order complied with.
